

Ways to use Technology in a Secondary Art Classroom

Students can learn about graphic design and design their own advertisement on photoshop
Students can make a collage on photoshop
Value Landscapes- Students paint with pixels on the computer to create their own landscapes. Valuable experience with using tone to create depth
Students can create a political cartoon relevant to todays society by using adobe illustrator or photoshop
The teacher can use QR codes to create activities for studying or review games
The class can create an online gallery for their class to display artwork and recognize student work as well as receive feedback
Claymation project- Students can use iMotion HD to create stop motion animation where the students create their own scenes and props
Create a small video description of your artwork on Ted's Facetime with same level students in another country and to communicate
Take pictures of artworks and post on Pinterest do the peer critique
Create several piece in the semester, and take pictures of artworks, create a narrative story video
Create artwork connect to music
Create digital portfolio
Visit museum website to learn the history art
Create a song and make a piece of artwork
Use Photoshop or Illustrator to create a self portrait
Make a collage of photos to create an album cover on Photoshop
Use Photoshop to create a unique animal using photos of other animal parts
Create a sculpture using a 3D printer
Use iPad draw or paint app to make a stylized painting
Use Photoshop to alter landscape pictures to resemble rigid, city-like forms

Use laptop as a light table to replicate famous works
Students can present favorite artist using iMovie, impersonating that artist
Students can create a collaborative TED Video inspired by artistic creation/expression
Students will look up a variety of collaborative dances and imitate movements with painting techniques
Students will compose a song (lyrical or instrumental) then make a mural resembling their song.
Students can use social media to create a type of happening.
Use pictures to create a time-lapse video while creating work
Make a slideshow of you artwork with a voiceover commentary
Take videos of public/interactive/performance art
Project videos onto sculpture installations
Pair computer art with other medias to make multimedia art Have students self asses via computers and ipads.
young kids can use ipads to make expressive art and develop their motor skills Use technology to make artist statement videos to go with each students artwork videos paired with visual art to create interactive art experiences use websites specifically for life drawing QR code activities to learn procedures
Digital Cloning- Allowing images to be effortlessly replicated at a fast rate.
Artist Postcard Project- Exchange. Interpersonal communication
Explore artist websites for students who wish to pursue a career in the Arts
Explore museum websites to teach functional literacy through art appropriate concepts
Virtual Legos- Incorporating Minecraft into the art education curriculum
Creating Interactive Video Games

